

Employer Complaints Policy

Overview

Buttercups Training takes the investigation and resolution of complaints about our service seriously. We are committed to undertaking a full investigation of any issues in a fair, transparent and objective manner, and will take appropriate action following completion of an investigation into any issues, or the professionalism of any individual.

These procedures address complaints made by employers about the provision of services by Buttercups Training. We aim to settle any complaint in a positive and reasonable manner. We believe that addressing problems and dealing with shortfalls in our service is part of a learning process that strengthens our delivery and enhances our position as a professional provider of training.

If you are unhappy with our service

If you are unhappy with the service you have received from Buttercups Training, you are entitled to make a complaint and have it considered. Many issues may be resolved informally during normal discussions with our staff, such as in client meetings, via email communications or phone calls.

If you are unhappy with this, or consider that a more serious complaint needs to be raised, this can be done formally via email or letter.

To whom should I complain initially?

For an informal complaint please contact our professional services team on our main phone number (0115 9374936), who will forward your call to the relevant personnel.

A formal complaint should be made in writing in the first instance to the relevant manager below, with the aim of resolving issues as quickly and professionally as possible.

- Apprenticeship issues: Danielle.Perks@buttercups.co.uk
- Contract issues: Lucy.Bate@buttercups.co.uk
- Finance issues: Sarah.Dakin@buttercups.co.uk
- Learner issues: Manjit.Nahal@buttercups.co.uk

How long will it take us to respond?

An allocated member of staff will investigate each complaint. All complaints will be dealt with as quickly and efficiently as possible and will initially be acknowledged within three working days of receipt. The length of the resolution period will vary with the nature of the complaint and the urgency with which it needs to be settled. However, the intention is that all complaints should be settled within 14 days of receipt.

Resolving of complaints

A final response communication should include a summary giving an explanation of how the complaint has been considered and the conclusions reached. It should highlight any remedial action needed, and confirm that any action needed has either already been completed or the proposed timescale of when such action will be completed.

If I am not happy with the outcome or want to complain further

If you are not satisfied with the process or resolution, details of how to appeal to the Board will be given in the final outcome.

Monitoring

Buttercups Training will update a complaints log to record the following information:

- Each complaint received
- The subject matter and outcome of each complaint
- Details of any reasons for delay where an investigation took longer than the agreed response period
- The date the response to the investigation was sent to the complainant.
